

Paediatric Study Day for Adult Critical Care Nurses

Monday 9th March 2020

Time: 09:00 - 16:00

Location: Take Heart Meeting Room, Level F, Jubilee Wing,
Leeds General Infirmary

Learning Objectives

- ❖ The day will focus on an introduction to basic skills and knowledge of the care needs of critically ill children
- ❖ The intention is for Adult Trained Critical Care nursing staff to gain some insight into the differences in care / anatomy / physiology including clinical skills for stabilisation
- ❖ Competency is not assessed; post registration courses should be accessed for further in depth knowledge and competency

PROGRAMME

Introductions / general discussion / concerns

How children are different to adults - group work

Paediatric Ventilation & Sedation strategies

Airway & Breathing equipment & practice

- Tube taping & Intubation equipment
- Suctioning

Fluid Management

Drug Calculation practice

IV Infusions & Embrace drug chart

To book a place, please go to the West Yorkshire Critical Care Network website at www.wyccn.org or by scanning the QR code

